Get ready for an unforgettable night of country music as Colne Delta brings you the very best of the UK scene this coming February!

Headlining the evening are Chelmsford's own The Jackson Line, known for their rich harmonies and heartfelt songwriting.

Joining them is the sensational Florence Sommerville, freshly crowned UK Country Artist of the Year and UK Female Country Singer of the Year 2025.

The stunning setting of St James's Church, Brightlingsea will provide the perfect backdrop for this special night of music, community, and celebration. Best of all, any profit will go directly to Brightlingsea Winterfest, supporting local arts and culture.

The Jackson Line

<http://thejacksonline.com>

The Jackson Line are a modern country trio from Essex, made up of Keith Porter, Jamie Cook, and Jim Cross. With a passion for storytelling, harmonies, and guitars, they blend classic country-pop with contemporary influences, drawing inspiration from artists such as Brad Paisley and Zac Brown Band. Their debut EP Don't Wait (2017) introduced their catchy and emotional songwriting, while recent singles like Shade of the Pines and Brave have earned them recognition on Apple Music playlists and UK country radio.

Florence Sommerville

<https://florencesommerville.com>

Florence Sommerville is one of the UK's most compelling new voices in country music. Hailing from Orsett, Essex, she began writing songs at just 12 years old and has since performed at major festivals including Latitude, Maverick, and AMA Music Week in Nashville. Known for her heartfelt storytelling and melodic finesse, Florence released her debut album Endless Horizon in 2025, showcasing her lyrical depth and emotional range. She has supported Nashville stars and played iconic venues such as the Bluebird Café in Nashville, cementing her reputation as a rising star in modern country.
