Liz Stringer

<https://lizstringer.com>

Liz Stringer is one of Australia's most admired and versatile songwriters and instrumentalists. A venerated guitarist and vocalist, her notoriously powerful live performances and melodically rich, story-based songs have earned her a unique place among the most important Australian songwriters of the modern era.

Stringer's sixth studio album First Time Really Feeling, recorded with producer Chris Stringer in Toronto, Canada debuted at #14 on the ARIA Charts, won an AIR Award for Best Blues and Roots Album 2022 and helped her to achieve a new level of industry and audience recognition after many years of being Melbourne's 'best kept secret'.

Jasmine Rodgers

<https://jasminerodgers.com>

2 years on from the release of her single "The Tempest", Jasmine is back with "Dark Tides", written during lockdown and after, the album has undergone many changes. After a gorgeous show celebrating International Women's Day in 2023, where Jasmine played a stripped back set with just her on vocals and guitar and Danny Keane on the cello, Jasmine decided to record the set almost exactly as was. For anyone that doesn't already know, Jasmine Rodgers has a rapidly-growing reputation for fusing influences from rock, blues, soul, folk and country into lush musical textures layered with poetic lyrics. Her stripped-back solo shows feature her complex guitar picking styles and intricate vocals, as she shifts effortlessly across her varied musical landscape, from folk to rock.
