ASHLEY CAMPBELL plus Support

The youngest of the eight children of Glen Campbell, Ashley was perhaps always destined to perform. Taking the stage first as a comedian, her debut single was 'Remembering'. A new version of the track is also included on her 'Something Lovely' album and the song also featured on the soundtrack to the 'Glen Campbell: I'll Be Me' documentary the compilation won a Grammy and was nominated for an Oscar.

No stranger to the UK, Ashley Campbell appeared on several 'pop up' stages at the 2016 C2C Festival in the UK, graduating to the main stage for the 2018 event and also at the 2017 Nashville Meets London Festival. Also doing supports slots for Artist such as Kris Kristofferson and Jimmy Webb to name a few. Both her Albums 'The Lonely One' and 'Something Lovely' hitting the Top Ten of the UK Country Chart upon release.

Ashley released two singles in 2021. One being her own version of the Classic Jimmy Webb song 'Highwayman' and the second single a duet with Dylan Smucker 'La Bete' both produced by Ashley's brother Cal Campbell

This is definitely the one gig this year you must not miss, we expect this to sell out quickly, so get your tickets early.
